

Since Sinclair Broadcasting has taken over our local station(WICS-Springfield,Il), our local news and information has been reduced. Now they have one of their corporate people doing national editorials sandwiched in between news stories. The effects of consolidation are clear: less jobs, less local programming. We see it with our radio and now television. The original intent was to insure local prgramming, but the rule changes are doing the exact opposite.